The Dempsoy Estate.—A statement has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that "the large property of Mr. Dempsoy, who recently died in Maran, (sorgin, was bequeathed to the Catholic Church, except $5,000, which he willed to be divided equally between his two children; this is an error. We learn, from good authority, that such was the purport of a will executed some time since, but the testster, just previous to his denth, unade another, bequeathing all his property to his wife and two children, each to receive a third."

Our neighbor may talk about "the impotence of the Union to enforce its decrees," yet all of the Union's decrees that the Administration has power to enforce are enforced. The Union pronounced against the course of the editors of the Louisville Democrat in relation to Lecompton, and straightway the lucrative office of mail agent was taken from one of the worthy editors, and all the government advertising was taken from the paper, and the Administration's serfs withdrew from it their advertising and their authority of Douglas by the Ulinois Democracy, and the heads of the Douglas Democrats in office in that State heads of the Douglas Democrats in office in that State balls. The Ugion has now pronounced against the New York News, and all interested will see that not another crams of Administration comfort will be abolishing the instituti n of marriage as was rec m.

This reminds us to ask our neighbor of the Democrats are energy for the introduction of the English till into congress, that the free States, in the event of the passage of the bill, would pay no attention to the restrictive clause in it. This is no idle suggestion of ours. It is really a solemn matter. We find an impression gaining ground that our neighbor of the Democrat is decidedly more tickled than distressed at the Democracy—the one a grawing poison, lie other a racy's terrific defeats on Tuesday. If the impression is wrong, our neighbor can't correct it a moment too soon by pouring forth the most pathetic and heart-reading lumentations over his party's dreadful misfortunes. That horrid grin upon his countenance is only calculated to confirm the belief that his soul is secretly revelling in dark and disbolical exultation.
